

19-15203-AMC

Dear Judge Chan,

I appeared in front of you on several occasions
1st The Law Offices of Jeffery A. Fournier claim # 18-16129-AMC
2nd The Law Office of Jensen Bagnato, P.C.
3rd Young, Marr & Associates claim # 19-15203-AMC

All three made statements in your court that I felt I had to tolerate. If you would have asked me directly there would have been a different response.
All three shared different philosophies on how to handle my Chapter 13 claim. They were all different. Very confusing! I feel like I am between a rock and a hard place without luxury of truth.

Is William Miller the ONLY Trustee?

I do not understand their issue. I am paying them like clockwork through TFS. I have not and will not miss a payment. My automated payments are sent shortly after receiving my automated Social Security payments.

I drive for Uber and Lyft, but I do not receive physical pay statements. I am sending you my bank statements for last four months showing the Electronic Deposits.

I've have asked both Mr. Fournier and Mr. Young about where the funds are going, what amounts, and for what purpose without response.

At this time I would like to respectfully Petition the court for the Accounting and Documentation

Thank you for your patience
